Windward Business Association Donates 25K to Alpharetta Public Safety Foundation

The Alpharetta Public Safety Foundation has been awarded a generous donation from the Windward Business Center Association. The foundation received a donation of twenty-five thousand dollars. The check was presented by Kimbrle Matherly, Managing Agent of the Windward Business Group. The money will be used to provide mobile camera solutions for strategic locations along the Windward/Deerfield Business Corridor.

“We are thrilled and humbled by the continued generosity and community involvement of the Windward Business Association”, said John Albers, Chairman of the Alpharetta Public Safety Foundation. The Alpharetta Public Safety Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to “Support those who Protect Us” and “Maintaining World Class Public Safety” within the City of Alpharetta. To find out more about the Foundation or how you might get involved please visit the website at www.apsfoundation.org.

Director Gary George of the Alpharetta Dept. of Public Safety says “On behalf of our citizens I want to thank the Windward Business Center Association for their generous contribution.” “The association is an important partner helping to keep the Windward/Deerfield Business Corridor a premiere business and shopping destination for our citizens and visitors. The Windward Business Center Association has supported the Alpharetta Public Safety Foundation each year of their existence, and that makes them a very special partner!”
